

Worrying About Money? Highland App

NHS Highland has developed an app to provide financial support to people who may be struggling with money worries.

The Worrying About Money? (WAM) Highland app was developed by the Health Board in partnership with the Independent Food Aid Network and signposts to a wide variety of support networks for people who are worried about their finances

The app is free can be downloaded using the following QR codes:

